“ O’Neill’s ON THE MARKET SQUARE ARE PLEASED TO SHARE IN THE NOTTINGHAM IRISH FESTIVAL. ON ST. PATRICK’S DAY WE HAVE A FULL MENU OF FOOD, DRINKS AND ENTERTAINMENT. ~ COME VISIT US.”

Written and performed by Michael Hughes

1914. The world is at war. The British army recruits 30,000 men between 5’-5’3” to fight. These men came from all over Britain, Ireland and Canada. Known as ‘bantams’ after the small, aggressive rooster, they were formed into special Bantam battalions.

1918. Bouzincourt, France. One Bantam remains. Patrick Michael Wolfe, a teacher from Dublin. This is his story, and inspired by real events.
